Buck Savage

Buck father was a former boxer who legally changed his name to “Savage” for his career. He wanted a better life for his son though, and forced him to go to school in New York City. Buck went just long enough to get involved in a few anthropology digs, but it soon became obvious that finding treasure and fighting off competitors was more suited to Buck’s nature.

Now Buck travels the world, searching for lost treasures and giving them to the museums of the world—in exchange for a small finder’s fee, of course. He’s deeply in love with Virginia Dare, but his surly nature keeps ruining any chance he might have to make their partnership permanent.

“There are two kinds of treasures in the world, doll. Mine, and those that ain’t mine yet.”
Virginia Dare

Virginia’s parents raised her to be a dancer, but her tomboyish nature often got the better of her. More than one boy who was too forward with her received a broken nose. By the age of 21, the bored socialite was jolted out of her boring life when her brother, Danny Dare, went missing during a visit to Cairo. Not only did she find him, but they became embroiled in an incredible fight against an ancient mummy, and ever since she has become a renowned tomb raider.

Virginia met Buck Savage during this same adventure, and formed a love-hate relationship with him. The two know they’re destined to be together, but their stubborn natures have so far kept them from cementing the deal.

Buck contacted Doc Gold a few years back when he was looking for a suit that could venture into the depths (to find the lost city of Atlantis). The English inventor hasn’t been able to perfect that invention yet, but he’s working on it. In the meantime, the two have struck up a working relationship. Doc Gold accompanies Buck on some of his expeditions and whips up his miraculous Wonder Tonic (healing salves), and gets a share of the loot to further fund his research.

*Buck and the crew discovered Kator on a trip deep into darkest Africa less than six months ago. Incredibly, Kator seems to have been orphaned in the jungle and raised by apes! He is incredibly tough and strong, and quite intelligent as well, though his lack of education makes him seem savage and ignorant. He speaks broken English now—"Kator want candy bar!"—and has only begun to learn to write his name. He’s quite eager for combat and ruthless when he wins. The Law of the Jungle frequently conflicts with the Dares’ more “civilized” ways.

Kator loves Virginia and often fights with Buck over his jealousy. Virginia loves Kator in a motherly way, but the mixed signals confuse the unsophisticated ape boy.
